

2022 : recap
2023 : up next

DUKAPAQ mobile POS

Redefining the shopping experience at African SMEs by rewarding customer loyalty and facilitating seamless transactions.

Tampa Bay Wave Fintech Accelerator

TBW Fintech|X Accelerator is a highly specialized accelerator program exclusively for innovative and disruptive fintech startups. The 2022 cohort consisted of 16 high-growth fintech startups from across the United States and abroad, including companies from England, Saudi Arabia, Kenya, Germany, and Ukraine.

"Attending the TBW fintech accelerator program was like tapping into a well of knowledge, resources, and connections, where we were able to turn DUKAPAQ's financial innovation into a reality and scale our company to new heights." - Luka Mutinda, CEO + Co-founder, DUKAPAQ

Full Service Web POS

In 2022 we built & validated our full-service web POS for 12 beta customers in Nairobi, Kenya.

AlphaExpo Micro-Accelerator

DUKAPAQ was selected to showcase our product at the Africa Fintech Summit's 5th AlphaExpo in Cape Town, South Africa. AFTS is the largest bi-annual gathering of financial technology stakeholders on the African continent.

"Attending the summit allowed us to demo our software in real-time. Receiving praise and feedback on our software from players in the Fintech space was valuable and it affirmed how viable our business is." - Miguel, COO + Head of Product, DUKAPAQ

Mobile POS App Now Live + Loyalty Member App Coming Soon

In January 2023 DUKAPAQ released our feature mobile POS app on the Google Play Store. We are onboarding new & current customers weekly.

Our highly anticipated Rewards and Loyalty member app is set to release in February 2023.

2023 : DUKAPAQ is ready to scale in our biggest year yet!

- Our entire team will be on the ground this spring to meet with potential clients, partners, and gain valuable market insights as we scale our business.
- Loyalty + Rewards Member App is set to release in Feb 2023
- Join us in our journey to expand our business to more SMEs.
